

26 November 2013

Media Release

Children First 13th Annual General Meeting

Children First Foundation Chairman Geoff Hone today released a statement announcing changes to the Foundation's Board of Directors

On Monday, 25 November Children First foundation held its Thirteenth Annual General Meeting.

Donald Maloney, Peter Gilbert and Roger Langley were elected or re-elected as Directors.

John Ward retired after 14 years of outstanding service as a Director. The Board thanked him for his contribution and continued efforts to support the Foundation.

Moira Kelly finished her executive duties with the Foundation on 31 March 2013 and did not offer herself for re-election as a Director at the AGM.

For some time now, Moira's primary focus has been caring for formerly conjoined Bangladeshi twins, Trishna and Krishna. She is also pursuing projects separately from the Foundation.

Moira has been the inspiration for Children First and remains a Principal Ambassador of the Foundation.

The Board acknowledges and thanks her for her extraordinary contribution to the Foundation which was originally established to support her humanitarian work.

Geoff Hone
Chairman

Media enquiries: Julie Webber 03 9329 4822